Thank you for choosing to adopt a pet from Volunteer Services for Animals, Inc., hereinafter referred to VSA. Our organization has done its best to evaluate the health and disposition of the pet(s) you are adopting. However, VSA can only assure you that the pet(s) you are adopting appeared healthy and was/were suitable for adoption at the time of the adoption. It is possible that the he or she has been exposed to diseases that may not show symptoms for several weeks, including diseases that could be transmittable to humans. By signing this agreement, you are accepting all risks and responsibilities for ownership of the adopted pet(s) named above. You hereby release, indemnify and hold harmless VSA, its directors, members, volunteers, and agents from any claim, cause of action, or liability of any type or nature, known or unknown, that may arise related to the adoption of the above-named pet(s). It is agreed that VSA is not responsible for any veterinary or related expenses occurring after the adoption(s). I/we further agree to not declaw this/these pet(s) and to return the pet(s) to VSA in the event that I/we, for whatever reason, can no longer care for the pet(s) and/or keep the pet(s) in my/our personal possession, excluding short periods of time during which proper care has been arranged for with others. I/we also agree that any transfer of ownership of the pet(s) to another person requires VSA's prior consent. Upon violation of this agreement, ownership of this/these pet(s) reverts to VSA. It is understood that all adoption fees are not refundable, including prepaid adoption fees unless VSA determines the pets is/are not adoptable because of disposition or health conditions or otherwise fails to deliver the agreed-upon pet(s), excluding reasonable delays for medical reasons.
